Lest You Forget
The
New
Harper

In the heart of the tri-cities. Highest class cabaret always.

'Tis like a peacock when its beautiful plumage has come forth in all its glorious splendor to vainly display himself to the curious and admiring.

Much the same pride will be placed in human nature. When we mortals arrayed in all our finery watch for an opportunity to disport ourselves to public gaze in public places.

When Dressed Up

You feel more like enjoying the real things of life, partaking of pleasure that lightens the heart and improve dispositions.

Get Out All of You
